excellent speaker - able to bring in humor - and very knowledgeable

Would like more on neurogenic bowel

Love the humor

As a soon to enter Emory's WOCNED program, this gave me a great amount of pre-info as to what to look forward too funny, great speaker, good information

Excellent speaker!! Good presentation for the various dysfunctions of the bowel.

Limited references in her presentation, but a good presentation.

Great speaker

Too general

not my favorite subject- I am a wound care nurse- but good information

great informations

excellent presentation of motility issues, normal vs abnormal bowel function slides were fuzzy and hard to read at times. Delightful speaker. I was very sorry to hear of your loss. I will be thinking of you.

Her presentation was excellent, but I seemed to have a hard time reading her slides with the light blue color. Could just be my eyes.

Great discussion on bowel motility disorders.

Fabulous speaker...makes bowel issues fun!! Haha

Interesting

nice presentation style

Susan provided us with an excellent presentation and we are privileged to have her as a colleague and mentor in the SER WOCN

Excellent review.

Complicated process to keep body id good normal function. Surprised to learn Extra virgin olive oil is as good as stool softeners as they are very expensive

Good topic to remind caregivers to identify predisposing factors, encourage prevention and treatment.

I really enjoyed Susan Steele as a speaker and the way she "calls a spade a spade". Her funny way of looking at things not only cracked me up, but it helped with learning-- there are things I will never forget simply because she couched them so well with

Very well done and enjoyed the added humor.

Excellent speaker. Motivating, dynamic and really funny. Thoroughly enjoyed her session.

Interesting!

Good speaker

Content was not advance enough for audience. Seems like intro RN student lecture.

Susan Steele is such a good speaker! I was so impressed that she honored her committment to our conference even though she recently suffered the tragic loss of her daughter. Thank you Susan for your professionalism. I am so sorry about your daughter!!!!

Excellent lecture!

I enjoyed listening to the speaker.

The best speaker of the day

Did a good job even though it was hard for her to get up and speak with the recent loss of her daughter....kudos to her for coming!

Informative

Susan Steele is a wonderful speaker. So knowledgeable and humorous with her illistrations. What a fantastic person besides still coming to speak after the tragedy in her life. I pray God will be with her in the coming weeks, months and years ahead. She i Humorous; good way to end the day.

Did not know that Infectious Diarrhea is a 2nd leading cause of death of children under 5 yrs. old.

great job!

Great sense of humor, kept our attention

this was a great topic as seeing more and more pelvic floor dysynergy patients requiring ostomy care and more- lovely speaker-engaging information was some of repetitive information but informative and interesting.

I experienced many motility disorders from prolonged sitting...

THIS WAS A GREAT SPEAKER, VERY INFORMATIVGE

Excellent speaker. Kept everyone's interest. Would love to see her speak again. She knew her stuff!

Great lecture! Quite enjoyed her humor!

excellent presentation on a difficult subject which was well both entertaining and packed with information

A very good presentation on GI motility. Kept my attention, (even at the end of the day) and was very informative.

Very interesting and well presented. I always need a good refresher in continent based material. Good reminder of certain conditions. Maybe some terms could use more explanation since many of us don't practice continence frequently Loved the humor and great stories. Excellent lecture.

What a great sense of humor. Enjoyed Susan immensely.

Combined great information with humor. Wonderful presentation
