Great use of plane analogy, useful information

Always a pleasure to hear Laurie's session!

This was a great presentation on the basics of what we need to do to progress our career and the position of WOC Nurses in healthcare. Reviewing ourselves what skills we bring to the workplace and looking inside ourselves to see what we could work on is Very energizing speech. Set a nice tone for the conference.

specialty that is growing and is very important to patient care

Always enjoy hearing Laurie speak. "What got you here won't get you there" is an effective nudge to not coast through my few remaining working years.

Laurie did a great job kicking us off.

Loved the analogy to planes.

This session highlighted the need for more WOCNs, professional development and to challenge ourselves academically

Motivating toward taking skills of WOC nursing to another level.

excellent!

Laurie has the ability to inject the right amount of humor into her lectures to make you lock into what is being said. She is very inspirational.

very inspiring

very informative and well incorporated to our current practice.

As always, Laurie was knowledgeable, entertaining and thought provoking. Excellent and timely presentation.

Excellent reminder to stay relevant.

Enjoyed the mention and encouragement to push into non-traditional WOCN areas like CAUTI projects etc.

Was interesting and a great reminder that we need to be open to new skill set and that attitude can hurt those in this specialty that are not burned out.

Laurie spoke with such enthusiasm and humor-- great kick-off to an energetic conference.

I thought this talk was excellent! I got so much from it, especially in thinking of team dynamics and individual leadership skills.

Great speaker as always. Good focus on challenging WOC Nurses to map out our practice.

OK speaker, not one of my favorite sessions.

Nice welcome

Great speaker, always love hearing her speech. great way to begin the conference with motivation

very motivating speaker

Energetic and engaging

Laurie did a fabulous job, as always!

Great to hear the updated statistics and trends

very good tips for keeping current and stretching boundaries in professional practice.

Excellent presentation. Speaker was energetic, apparent she has a heart for our profession. Motivational speaker who presented Profession updates and charged us with the challenge to do our best, to continue to grow personally and professionally.

The objective was well presented and packed full of information. The speaker kept the conversation lively, entertaining, yet informative.

Enjoyed and helpful to see where we are going

Extremely valuable session for me. I have been a WOC for many years and she gave me lots of ideas for the future.

Speaker was entertaining.

Enjoyed the book suggestions

Laurie Mcnichol is a very dynamic speaker.

Very good

Presenter made all of it interesting

Speaker was energetic and fun.

Laurie is fantastic!

test

Enjoyed the presentation, Felt it provided good recommendations to support our role as a WOC nurse and how to be effective in advancing our role in whatever the setting that we serve as a WOC nurse. Loved the book recommendations, we can use the informat

Great presentation and very motivational

very dynamic speaker. really enjoyed

Excellent presentation style

Always enjoy hearin Laurie speak. She reminds me of why I became a WOC nurse.

Excellent delivery, excellent message

This was such a timely and on-target presentation for me. It reiterates exactly what I am trying to accomplish.

wonderful speaker and content

Laurie, as always, is a fabulous speaker with a great message! Thank you again Laurie!!!

great presentation

What an excellent speaker! I am not a WOCN, however, I loved the passion that Laurie had for the WOCN society and for life. I liked how she used different analogies in her lecture and how she explained that WOCN practice is evidenced based. I really like

Laurie is always inspiring

Laurie is always fun. Uplifting. And thought-provoking

Just being at the conference was energizing. The information was beneficial to my practice.

Excellent as always. Uplifting and eye opening.
