INSPIRATIONAL.....INFORMATIVE.....THANKS DR. SULLIVAN

very illuminating, especially for someone new to WOC nursing like myself hospitals are abandoning nurses because "they didn't follow the policy." Plaintiffs wouldn't know you have your own insurance until you got to the discovery/deposition phase. And what about an incident that occurs outside of employment? I'll keep my malpra

I thought this would be a very boring session. Dr. Sullivan does a great job in explaining how and why we document what we do. I have some changes to make starting Monday in my practice.

Really good presentation. Wish there was more time available for questions.

She was the best speaker that I have ever heard on legal issues. She was knowledgeable and could present well.

I found dr. Sullivan was able to present a very important topic in an meaningful and easy to understand way.

Excellent session.

excellent interesting presentation.

great update and information. appreciate topic

I appreciate Rhonda answering questions after her session and her expertise.

Very enlightening

standard of care, chart everything in concise terms, watch your back, do no harm, only do what is within YOUR scope of practice, assessments pre-intra-postop, chart prevention, photography,

I enjoyed this speaker very much because of her authority and experience. I would have like a longer session as I think she had a lot more material she could cover if given more speaking time.

Rhonda Sullivan was very knowledgeable and effective speaker. Thanks for sharing your knowledge.

Should be a pre-conference next year for PP hours. Would have loved to hear more!!

Favorite session of the conference!

I loved this session! Extremely well organized and delivered.

Excellent speaker!

Excellent presentation

Excellent speaker! Would love to have her as a regular instructor in a class or just expect her to be at each regional and national conference!

This was a much needed lecture.

Very informative presentation. Great speaker!

I felt that this information was good for WOC nurses as well as all nurses in regards to litigation and issues with documentation.

we need more education regarding this topic. She was superb. More case scenario timely information, good to review reinforces need to chart carefully and choose wording to reflect facts

Rhonda very knowledgeable. Would like to have been presented case studies.

VERY informative!

Discussing legal aspects in nursing are often boring however Rhonda presentation was so engaging and interesting as well as extremely beneficial.

Interesting, helpful to my practice.

VERY HELPFUL, GREAT Q AND A; HAVE BEEN QUOTEING HER AT WORK SINCE

She is not a very exciting speaker; more of an overview rather than new information provided.

To many vague answers

would love to have this speaker next year

Fantastic presentation, great information

Very Informative

Rushing through the lecture made it unfinished, wished there was more specifics in the lecture and case studies to make it more real-to-life.

needs to be a topic at every conference

Informative and significant for practice.

Rhonda is a great speaker and knows her stuff; I always enjoy her presentations; documentation of protective measures for medical devices very good advice; also I will be making sure our policy does not state Q2hrs for repositioning. I need to take the ti

Dr. Sullivan gave an excellent, informative, educational and practice applicable presentation. She spoke primarily to hospital setting for WOCN practice. Would appreciate her speaking at next conference and include other areas of practice such as outpati

Immediately used this session when returning to my facility.

excellent presentation

Very intense topic. I will be looking up standards and policies and procedures. One of the best presentations.

Very informative

Very helpful. Thank you!
